

Rebekah Officers Inducted by Winifred Jones, Staff

More than 150 members and guests witnessed the impressive installation of officers of Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge 265, Mrs. Winifred Jones, district deputy president of district 66, a resident of Torrance at 1605 Hickory avenue, with her official staff, inducted the officers.

LAMP SHADE SILHOUETTE
Ideal for the popular close-crowned coiffure, Suzanne Talbot's "lampshade" bonnet perches high on the head, framing face and curls with its gently undulating brim. Made of wood-rose velvet, the hat is trimmed at its shallow crown with fluted brocaded ribbon.

GEORGE KEY FAMILY MOVE TO LOMITA

Mr. and Mrs. George Key, 17-month-old daughter and newest member of the family, little Thomas Allen, who was born July 14 at the Pomona Hospital have arrived in Lomita to live with Mrs. Key's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris on 40th street, for the present. Mr. Key has accepted a position as an industrial instructor at Leuzinger High School.

BABY ARRIVES AT COMMANDER HOME ON 23RD

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Commander of 2040 W. 24th street are the proud parents of a son who arrived at the Park View Hospital in Los Angeles July 23 and weighed 7 lb. 12 oz. The baby also has an older sister, Charlotte Jean Commander, two and a half years old.

SISTER VISITS

Mrs. Willis M. Brooks was a guest at a dinner party in Chino Saturday, where she was joined by her sister, Mrs. George Gillespie of Independence, Calif., who had arrived for a weekend visit. The ladies left immediately for the Riverside home of Mrs. Brooks' son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Phillips M. Brooks and their baby Robin.

ATTEND ART FESTIVAL

Recent overnight guests of Mrs. Willis M. Brooks were Alma Mae Cook, of the Los Angeles Herald Express staff and Mrs. Marian Wallace, water color artist. Mrs. Brooks and her guests attended the annual Festival of Arts at Laguna Beach.

ON VACATION

The Misses Hazel Shiffer and Clarabelle Thomas, members of the nursing staff of Torrance Memorial Hospital, left Friday by plane for two weeks vacation in Iowa and Illinois, respectively.

While the audience assembled, the "Rhythm Boys" from Gardena entertained with several selections. Sarah Neukaemper and Maud Williams as junior past noble grand and noble grand, opened the meeting.

Minerva Gandy, conductor of Rebekah Assembly, was first given a seat of honor followed by the escort of Deputy Grand Master Moxley of Gardena.

Mrs. Neukaemper introduced the entertainers, a group of young dancers from the Stover-Lane studio.

Deputy Marshal Sade Tibbet announced Winifred Jones and her staff: Cynthia Harlow, Mildred Alken, Mabel Crabtree, Orpha Wilson, Pertina Sheldon and Ida Wright.

Elective officers who were duly installed were Noble Grand Martha Spikes, Vice Grand Minerva Keller, Recording Secretary Elza Mooney, Financial Secretary Solda Beaver, Treasurer Ida Wright. The noble grand appointed the following officers: Mary Smith, warden; conductor, Alice Tibbet; Theresa Walters and Orpha Wilson, right and left supporters; Gloria Gentry, musician; Lillian Burns and Charles Tibbet, inside and outside guardians; Nella Dion and Sadie Tibbet Jr. are right and left supporter of the vice grand. Next was their installation and investiture of their regalia.

Committee members, Maud Hamill of Neta Dena Lodge and Faye Hadley of Inglewood Lodge and past district deputies Alle Gentry, Cynthia Harlow, Mabel Baker, Grace Groh Begley, Minerva Gandy and Maud Hamill and Theta Tho advisers, Jean Bergen, Vera Moxley and Faye Hadley were all introduced.

Honorary officers of Silver Crest, appointed by Mrs. Spikes included Petrina Sheldon, Mildred Alken, Dorothy Newman, Willa Mae Blocker, Fay Halla, Mabel Crabtree, Georgia Reynolds and Sarah Neukaemper. The deputy's staff presented a bouquet of roses with a cascade of silver coins. Many personal gifts were also among them.

Mrs. Jones, the installing officer and the deputy marshal were also presented attractive gifts from the lodge. Mrs. Jones introduced her installing officers. Escort members were then presented and included Mary Smith, Georgia Reynolds, Willa Mae Blocker, Evelyn Boyer, Dorothy Newman, Alice and Sadie Tibbet, Nella Dion, Erna Mooney, Lillian Burns, Martha Spikes and Minerva Keller. Solda Beaver was pianist, Saras Neukaemper, drill captain and soloist.

Refreshments were served following the installation. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers, and a large doll from the collection of Virginia Reynolds was dressed in an Alice blue dress, a replica of those worn by the escort girls, and smaller dolls were in rose gowns. Lillian Burns, chairman of the refreshments committee, was assisted by Petrina Sheldon, Evelyn Boyer, Harry Neukaemper and others.

TOLOHA CLUB MEETS AT PARK FOR SEWING

A wise man care not for what he cannot have.

Conversation is the feminine of silence. — Roland Alik: My France.

Tact is good taste in action. — A Book of Days: W. Gordon.

The stingy person may really be a spendthrift—if he throws away his chance for happiness.

A small profit is better than a big loss — Danish proverb.

Silence is the unbearable repartee — G. K. Chesterton.

It never hurts a child to miss a meal, but it usually gives his parents indigestion.

If one person in a potential quarrel remains silent, the threatened cyclone is reduced to zephyr velocity.

Women who are the easiest to win are always the most difficult to lose.—Sydney Tremain: Tatlings.

When a child begins to get the upper hand, it's time for the parent to lower his.

I wish to have rural strength and religion for my children, and I wish city facility and polish. I find with chagrin that I cannot have both. — The Heart of Emerson's Journals: Edited by Bliss Perry.

To be forbearing to all, that is love; to be relentless toward self, that is wisdom; to be content with what one has, that is riches; to be discontent with what one is, that is piety. — Ivan Panin.
